PLANNING ENQUIRY FORM

The Banana Shire Council regulates new development and land use change through a number of mechanisms including the Banana Shire planning scheme 2005 and the Taroom Shire planning scheme 2006. The Banana Shire Council also has a referral agency role for certain building works within the local government area.

It is recommended that you talk to Council if you:

- are proposing new building works i.e. a new house, shed or pool.
- intend on starting a new land use such as a new residential, business or industry use or if you are intensifying an existing use.
- are proposing to subdivide or reconfigure your land.

Planning and Strategy will contact you as soon as practical.
