RIGHT OF BURIAL CERTIFICATE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The "Right of Burial" is the right to be buried in a particular grave / niche and the right to authorise the burial of others in the grave (up to the number permitted in that grave as determined by Council). It is also the right to authorise the placement of any monuments / plaques on the grave / niche site. A Right of Burial may be transferred (at no charge) by the mutual agreement of the Right of Burial Holder and another person. Both parties must give agreement in writing. ➤ On the death of the Right of Burial Holder, the authority to authorise burials in a grave reverts to Council. In its absolute discretion, Council will permit any person to be buried in the grave, provided however that Council has no reason to believe that the Right of Burial Holder would have objected. ➤ A Right of Burial (reserved grave) may be surrendered to Council. Council to be notified in writing.
